BLAINE SICK.

The Secretary Confined to His Bed by a Severe Attack--No Serious Results Anticipated.

NEW YORK, May 11.—The Herald says that Secretary Blaine, who came to New York on Tuesday last to see his daughter, Harriet, start for Europe on the Teutonic, and also to attend the opening of the Carnegie Music hall, is still in this city, stopping at the residence of his son-in-law, Walter Damrosch, at 72 West Seventieth street. His intention, when he came to New York, was to remain only a few days. It is stated that his protracted stay is due to a severe attack of indigestion with which he was seized on Friday last. His son-in-law stated last night that Mr. Blaine was at no time seriously ill. He could not say how long he would stay, but supposed he would remain until he had fully recovered. Dr. Janeway and Dennis, it is learned, are in attendance upon Mr. Blaine. They were with him for some time yesterday. They believe that the recent overwork on the part of the secretary is mainly attributable for his present indisposition. The secretary, the doctors say needs rest. The following bulletin was issued last night: "Doctors Janeway and Dennis says that Mr. Blaine is prostrated by overwork and that he has had an acute attack of indigestion, accompanied by vertigo, and they have insisted on absolute quiet and rest." Dr. Dennis stated to a United Press reporter last night, when asked if there was any cause for apprehension, that it was impossible to say as yet. Until he visited the patient to-day he could say nothing definite. Mr. Blaine has been confined to his bed since he was attacked and has only been able to leave it a few hours at a time.

LATER.

The condition of Secretary Blaine, who is reported ill at the house of his son-in-law, Dr. Damrosch, 72 West Seventieth street, is stated this morning to be much improved. His illness was due to an acute attack of indigestion, from which he is recovering. Mr. Blaine expects to be able to leave this city in a couple of days.

Dr. Dennis called at the house of Mr. Damrosch to-day and made an examination of his distinguished patient. He subsequently stated to the United Press reporter that there was nothing alarming in the symptoms of Mr. Blaine, or his present condition. Rest was all he required to bring him around. The only medicine prescribed was pepsin and that was to relieve the indigestion from which Mr. Blaine is suffering. Mrs. Blaine was also seen. She said: "Mr. Blaine is still confined to his bed. He is resting quietly, and there is no danger whatever. In fact, he is almost well. His attending physician has advised him to rest and not to return to Washington to-day. The secretary would return to the capital if I would permit it, but in view of the doctor's advice I would not let him go under any circumstances, for if anything should happen I would feel that I was to blame. Since the president's absence Mr. Blaine has been working very hard, and the fact is that he was called upon to look after all the affairs of the department of state. I attribute the present attack to Mr. Blaine's having hurried over to this city to see his daughter off for Europe and thus getting out of his regular daily routine." Mrs. Blaine denied that the secretary had had another attack of vertigo. He has had no fainting spells, she said, and his mind is perfectly clear. The attending physician will not call again to-day unless sent for.

A FRIGHTFUL EXPLOSION.

Workmen in the Hold of a British Ship Killed and Wounded.

LONDON, May 11.—A terrific explosion has occurred in the fore-hold of the British steamship Tancarville, Captain Carter in command, which was undergoing repairs in the dry dock at Newport. Several workmen employed on the steamer were killed and a number injured. The vessel is badly damaged. The Tancarville is a tank steamer engaged in carrying oil in bulk from American ports. Her last voyage was from Philadelphia for Havre, from which later port she proceeded to Newport, where she was to load for Baltimore. It seems probable that the explosion was caused by gases, which to a greater or less extent prevail in the holds of all oil carrying ships.

So great was the force of the explosion that the fore-deck was torn away from its fastening and blown off. Owing to the steamer being out of water there was no pressure on her hull to counterbalance the outward strain, and it is reported that some of the bottom plates of the steamer were ripped from the bolts. In the forward portion of the steamer the woodwork caught fire, but the flames were speedily extinguished. Five men were killed and thirteen injured.

A Railroad War.

SAN ANTONIA, May 11.—The liveliest rate war in the history of the roads is in progress between the Southern Pacific, the International and Great Northern and the San Antonia and Arkansas Pass roads. The card rate on wool has been $1.70 per 100 pounds from this point to New York and Boston. The rate by successive stages has been dropped to eighty-five cents, and agents predict that it will go much lower. Every indication is that before the war ends, every commodity will be dragged into it.

AFTER THE ITATA.

Three United States Cruisers After the Insurgent.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Inquiries at the navy department this morning developed nothing new regarding the movements of the cruiser Charleston and other United States vessels, in the Itata case. The greatest secrecy still surrounds the affair at the navy department, and it is impossible to learn the nature of the orders issued by the department to the vessels on the Pacific coast. Inquiries as to the whereabouts of the Charleston and to what orders she has received, they reply that she left San Francisco Saturday morning to try her guns and has not been heard from since. There is every reason to believe, however, that she is now in pursuit of the Itata with orders to take her wherever found. The war ships, Baltimore and Pensacola with Admiral McCann in command are now in Chilian waters and are undoubtedly under orders to capture the insurgents' vessel if they can. The San Francisco was last heard from when she was leaving Peru last week and she is expected to join the Baltimore and Pensacola early this week. With those vessels and the Charleston, Admiral McCann will have under his command the three finest cruisers and one of the best wooden vessels in the navy and they should certainly be able to take the Itata under any circumstances.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—A despatch received from San Pedro says that the cruiser Charleston sailed south from there at five o'clock this morning.

A Sensation Promised.

NEW YORK, May 11.—In regard to the Gloversville, N. Y., burglary, the Pinkerton detectives say: "The Norton burglary was planned by a pretended reformed bank burglar, of Troy, N. Y. Certain politicians also had a hand in the matter in protecting the burglars. As these parties are known to the Jewelers' Alliance, at an early date there will be a sensation within the walls of Troy that will shake it to its foundation, as the Jewelers' Alliance does not propose to let burglars or politicians, no matter what their standing is, shield a robbery of its members.

Want the Price Raised.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 11.—Up to Saturday night the returns indicate that all the Pittsburg lodges of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel workers have declared for an advance from $1.50 to $6 per ton for puddling next year. It is said that the determination to secure an increase is based upon the boom expected to be caused by the World's fair work.

Stabbed His Creditor.

ST. LOUIS, May 11.—At an early hour yesterday morning Wm. Hill and Herbert Gail met at the corner of Eighth and Carr streets and Hill asked Gail to pay him fifty cents that he owed him. Gail replied with a terrific blow and then drew a knife and cut Hill in seven places. Hill will die. Gail is under arrest.

Hurd for President.

TOLEDO, Ohio, May 11.—The Democrat, of Springfield, and the NEWS, of this city, and three or four other papers, are for Frank Hurd for governor on the free trade tariff ground. It is urged that the dissatisfaction among the farmers will cause them to support Hurd on a free trade platform.

Death of Mrs. W. H. Smith.

NEW YORK, May 11.—The wife of Mr. William Henry Smith, general manager of the New York Associated Press, died this morning at the residence of her daughter-in-law, at Mount Clair, N. J., from the effect of a stroke of apoplexy, which occurred Saturday night.

Hungarian Crops Suffer.

VIENNA, May 11.—Hungarian crop reports to-day show that rice, oats, barley and feeding stuffs have suffered greatly by the heat which has recently prevailed. There is a fair average wheat crop.

PERILS OF THE RAIL.

Three Killed and Thirteen Injured in a Triple Collison at Shepherd, Michigan.

SHEPHERD, Mich., May 11.—At 10 o'clock last night an extra freight from the north approaching the yard here, ran into fourteen loaded log cars, wrecking engine No. 20 and the caboose. The men on this train jumped and escaped uninjured. The force of the collision started thirteen cars down the grade, through the Shepherd yards, to a mile south of Shepherd, where the rest of the train was being loaded with logs. In the collision which followed three men were killed and thirteen injured. Following is the list of the killed and injured: Killed, Z. Bigelow, Clark E. Stubbles and Sherwood Clark, all of Shepherd. Injured, Charles Walling, badly bruised and head smashed; Jay Stubble, slightly bruised; John Kennedy, bruised slightly; Amos Pickett, breast injured; O. H. Farrel, shoulder badly smashed and dangerous scalp wound; C. Huntington, back injured; Frank Hartford, spine injured; Augustus Ride, head and leg badly injured; Geo. Starr, shoulder bruised; Lew Cole, shoulder bone broken; James Wilson, severely bruised. All these live in Shepherd. Conductor Anway, of Owosso, was slightly injured, and Brakeman Squires, of Owosso, had his breast and head injured. The injured are quartered at farm houses, except those who were able to be moved to their homes.

AN EXCITED PRIEST.

"I Will Grind to Dust the Rotten-Hearted Devils," He Shouts.

NEW YORK, May 11.—A Herald's special from Burlington, N. J., says: There was a scene in St. Paul's Roman Catholic church in this city Sunday morning. It was the twenty-sixth anniversary of the ordination of the Rev. Father Tracey, the pastor of the church. The priest had not been on good terms with some members of his flock for many months and in the course of his anniversary address became highly excited. "I will grind to the dust," he shouted, "the rotten hearted devils of the congregation and hold up their wretched characters to the light of day. While I am not as great a man as Moses, I have just as much authority over my people." The outburst was a surprise to many in the audience. As the priest continued his tirade many men and women arose indignant and left the church. The sermon is the talk of the town.

A ROBBER CAPTURED.

After a Chase of 5,000 Miles Detective Baldwin Gets His Man.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 11.—The leader of a band of train robbers who operated in Virginia was brought into the city yesterday by Detective Baldwin, of the Norfolk and Western railroad company, and lodged in the county jail. The man under arrest is John Mehan, who was for a time yardmaster of the railroad division at Roanoke, Va. For some time serious robberies of valuable goods from cars took place, but as the car seals were not broken it was impossible to find out where the robberies took place. As Mehan possessed sealing irons it was a simple matter to rob the cars and reseal them. All of the gang were arrested and pleaded guilty, but Mehan got away. Detective Baldwin located him Friday in Dakota after a chase of 5,000 miles. He left last night with his prisoner for Virginia.

IN THE ROCKIES.

The Presidential Party Continue their Pleasant Trip.

LEADVILLE, Col., May 11.—The presidential train pulled into Leadville at 7:45 this morning, after an easy run of ninety miles from Glenwood Springs. A great crowd greeted the presidential party at the station. As the train entered the city salutes were fired and several bands played the national anthem. At the depot the band, as every band along the line has done, played "Hail to the Chief." The stop here was only for half an hour and the miners made the most of the brief opportunity by thronging about the cars and climbing up to shake hands with the president.

Millers in Convention.

NEW YORK, May 11.—The fifteenth annual convention of the Millers' National association of the United States began in this city to-day. The convention, which is to last three days, is held in the Produce exchange. It is expected that 250 members will be present. The first session was to have been held this morning at 11 o'clock, but owing to the late arrival of some of the members from the far west the opening session was postponed until 1 o'clock.

Fire at Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, May 11.—Fire at 2 o'clock this morning destroyed the cable station of the elevated road at the union depot, and also a connecting station of the elevated road. Loss, $20,000.

A Noted Desperado Captured.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., May 11.—The sheriff of Pendleton county and a posse captured George Shirk, a noted desperado, on Saturday. He was strapped to a horse, placed in irons and when taken to the jail was fastened to the floor and closely guarded. There are over a dozen indictments against him. He has broken jail three times and, on one occasion, killed the jailer.

FOREST FIRES

Cause Great Loss in New Jersey and Michigan.

NEW YORK, May 11.—A disastrous fire broke out on Saturday and was raging between Mount Pleasant and Petersburg in Cape May county, New Jersey, yesterday. It is reported that the fire was started by Charles Crammere, who was burning brush and allowed the flames to get beyond his control. The fire has burned four miles in one direction and three in another. The village of Petersburg was completely surrounded by the flames Saturday. Much damage has been done to the new Sea Shore Railroad company and acres of the pine timber, and also some oak of eight and ten years growth, has been burned over. The damage is estimated at $35,000.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., May 11.—The forests around Dear Lake, about 100 miles from here, are ablaze and the immense lumber yard of Onsterhouse & Foy, with $250,000 worth of lumber, is surrounded with flames. Aid has been asked and a steamer sent there.

CLEARFIELD, Pa., May 11.—Forest fires have swept over a large portion of this county and lumbermen are suffering great loss. The sky is lighted up in all directions and the smoke was so dense in this place last night that people could scarcely breathe. The town of Curwensville, with 2,000 population, is threatened and 300 men are ready to go to their assistance from here.

ELMIRA, N. Y., May 11.—Specials from Coudersport and Austin, in Potter county, Pa., tell of a terrible accident in that county yesterday. A train loaded with 100 men, bent on the relief of people threatened by the fierce forest fires, ran into the fire and was wrecked. The engine and cars were burned. The Austin Despatch says that seventy-five men were seriously and probably fatally burned, and Superintendent Badger, of the railroad, and four men are still missing.

ADHERE TO THEIR DECISION.

The Yales Will Not Play the Harvards.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., May 11.—The Yale university has decided to adhere to the stand taken last week in the matter of the university declining to play the Harvard base ball club. This decision was reached after due consideration of the Harvard's late statement and after a consultation between Captain Calhoun, who has the matter in charge, and the Yale autonmy and professors interested in base ball. Captain Calhoun reiterates that the reason for Yales refusal to meet the Harvard base ball team on the diamond is because Harvard has failed to keep the agreement entered into at Springfield between the Princetons and the Yales for a series of base ball games.

OVER A LAW SUIT.

A Quarrel Causes the Death of two Men.

NEWPORT, Tenn., May 11.—One acre of land was the cause of the death of two men yesterday morning. Berry Holt and Wm. Holdway had trouble over a tract of land about two years ago and on Saturday a law suit was decided in favor of Holdway. Yesterday Wm. Holdway, jr., and Pleasant Holt were moving a fence in accordance to the decision when Rufus Holt, son of Berry Holt, shot them both down with a pistol, Holdway died instantly and Pleasant Holt four hours later. The murderer fled to the mountains and has not yet been captured.

GLADSTONE ILL.

The Grand Old Statesman Suffers an Attack of Chills.

LONDON, May 11.—Yesterday morning Mr. Gladstone attended church service, apparently in his usual good health, and remained until the close of the exercises. In the afternoon, however, he was seized with an attack of illness marked by a recurrence of fits of shivering. Dr. Andrew Clark, the distinguished Scotch physician, was called in, and after an examination of his patient's symptoms, declared that Mr. Gladstone must not leave his room for several days to come.

Another Failure.

CHICAGO, May 11.—The Belding Motor and Manufacturing company made a general assignment to-day. Its liabilities on stock and machinery unpaid for will amount to $75,000. About $100,000 is owing to stock holders in the shape of borrowed money. The assets will not much more than equal the indebtedness. The suspension is directly caused by the failure of eastern capitalists to fulfill their promises of financial support.

Collector Downing Dead.

SAN PEDRO, Cal., May 11.—Major P. H. Downing, collector of the port, died yesterday. Mr. Downing is the fourth collector under the present administration who had died when just entering upon the duties of his office.

The Charleston Sighted.

SAN PEDRO, Cal., May 11.—At 8:30 last evening a large steamer, supposed to be the Charleston, was sighted off this place.

TORTURE UNTO DEATH.

Little Frankie Weber Showered by the Boiling Contents of a Teapot--He Dies in Agony.

Frankie, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weber, of 123 Maumee avenue, died this morning at 10 o'clock from the effects of being scalded about his face, hands and body. The circumstances are painfully sad. Last evening the child playfully caught hold of the teapot, which stood on the kitchen stove, and pulling the vessel too near the edge, it was upset and the boiling contents showered over the little one's body. Medical attendance was summoned, but the child was beyond the physician's power. The child lingered in great agony until this morning when its sufferings ceased with the flight of breath from its body. The little one was the child of Frank Weber, the cigarmaker. The funeral will take place Wednesday at 10 a. m.

ARRESTED BAIT DEALERS.

Eight of Them Held for Violating the Laws.

HALIFAX, May 11.—Late advices from Fortune Bay, N. F., state that over eighty schooners, laden with bait, escaped to St. Pierre, Miq., and there disposed of their cargoes. It was a big risk to go home again, but thirty-five of the fleet ventured, accompanied by twenty schooners which were not in the bait traffic, but whose crews sympathized with those who were. Three vessels of the bait protection squadron followed the smugglers to St. Jacquez harbor, where the poachers landed with the determination of defying arrest. The three vessels which had followed the bait schooners could do nothing until the arrival of reinforcements, which were expected by the steamer Conscript. When the latter vessel at last arrived the smugglers saw there was an overwhelming force against them and gave in. Thirty-five men were arrested at first, but that number was finally reduced to eight men, who were taken to St. Johns and are considered the ring leaders of the law breakers.

FIRE BUGS.

The Department Has a Busy Sunday Night--Incendiary Work.

Last night the fire department had two lively runs, the first being to a shed on the Barnett property between Wayne and Berry streets, near Calhoun street, and the second one being to the property of J. F. W. Meyer, the druggist, at 22 West Washington street. Both fires were incendiary. The former building was destroyed and the latter, a barn, was partially destroyed, at a loss of about $150. The Meyer property is tenanted by Mrs. Margaret Ryan. The loss is covered by insurance.

LABOR QUESTIONS.

The Duluth Carpenters Make a Demand--Strikes in Europe.

DULUTH, Minn., May 11.—This morning the carpenters' union, embracing about all the carpenters at the head of the lakes, some 3,000 or 4,000 in number, resolved to strike June 1st for an eight hour day unless their demand be granted before that time.

BRUSSELS, May 11.—In the Charleroid district the strike is spreading. Thirty four thousand foundry men struck to day and several of the iron works have already been compelled to close by reason of their inability to obtain fuel.

Kind Words for Mr. Blake.

The Index and Review, a paper published in the interest of feeble minded children, contains the following: "We have received a copy of the Easter services at the Indiana School for Feeble Minded Youth at Fort Wayne. We doubt if any school, seminary or college in the land had a more appropriate or satisfactory service. No superintendent in the country devotes more time, or earnest thought to the improvement of his institution, and happiness and welfare of his pupils than the superintendent of the Indiana institution. Long may he wave."

Expelled From France.

LONDON, May 11.—A report has reached this city from Paris to the effect that Mr. Cunningham Graham, liberal member of parliament for the northwestern division of Lanarkshire, Scotland, has been expelled from France, because of utterances offensive to the French government which he is alleged to have made at a socialist meeting held in Paris last night.

AN ERRORLESS GAME.

Becker's Reliables Put Up a Strong Game But are Defeated.

Down at Dayton, Ohio, is a base ball club that is going to make a strong race for the Northwestern league pennant. The games played at that place by the Fort Wayne and Dayton clubs were beautiful exhibitions of skill. Both games were lost to Fort Wayne, partly on account of Catcher Briggs being unable to play on account of a dislocated thumb. The game Saturday was 8 to 1, and the game yesterday 2 to 1. Yesterday Raffert caught and the Fort Waynes played an errorless game. Inks struck out ten men to Dayton's four.

LEAGUE GAMES.

At Evansville the Detroit club was defeated Saturday 22 to 1, and yesterday the Evansville club was again victorious 10 to 4.

At Terre Haute, the Bay City club won both games as follows: Saturday, 4 to 2, and Sunday, 3 to 1.

The Saturday game at Peoria resulted 9 to 3 in favor of Peoria, the Grand Rapids club failing to find a ball except in the fourth inning. The Peoria game yesterday was postponed on account of rain.

CITY LEAGUE.

The game between the E. & F. and the Dortmunder clubs was close and interesting. The E. & F.s won by a score of 5 to 4. The batteries were "Muldoon" and "Monroe" for the E. & F., and Robbins and Wilcox for the Dortmunders.

The Battery and Pilsner game was not so scientific. Everybody hit the ball and the score was run up to 28 to 24 in favor of the Pilsners. The batteries were as follows: Bradley, Smuck and Penn, and Collars, Hirt and Heit for the Pilsners.

The umpiring of Chris Weller in the E. & F.-Dortmunder, game was impartial, and gave good satisfaction. Georgette umpired for the other game. Next Sunday the clubs will play as follows: E. & F. vs. Battery; Pilsners vs. Dortmunders.

NOTES.

Let the best club win.

Games are called at Evansville at 4 o'clock.

Evansville and Terre Haute have eighteen straight games at home.

Peoria has signed catcher Mike Trost who was with Evansville last year.

Fort Wayne "cranks" should not lose faith in the Fort Wayne club. The best clubs have their ups and downs.

Grand Rapids has another blacklisting affair on her hands. Flanigan, who is with Detroit, is claimed by Grand Rapids, but Detroit will not give him up. Flanigan said he didn't expect to play a game in this league, for Grand Rapids won't let him play with Detroit and he says he won't play with the former.

The Business college team defeated the Concordia college on the latter grounds, Saturday afternoon, by a score of 12 to 11. Batteries—Business college, Smith and Schilt; Concordia college, Walz and Roferts. Struck out—By Smith, 10; Walz, 5. The features of the game was the home run by Doriot and the battery work of the Business college.

The games Saturday resulted as follows:

National league—At Cincinnati—Cincinnati, 7; Pittsburg, 2. At Chicago—Chicago, 6; Cleveland, 4. At New York—Philadelphia, 4; Brooklyn, 6. At Boston—Boston, 4; New York, 4.

American Association—At Philadelphia—Athletics, 4; Columbus, 0. At Boston—Boston, 4; Cincinnati, 8. At Washington—Washington, 10; St. Louis, 8.

The others escaped.

IS IT A HOAX?

Walter Rhuland Discovers a Heap of Woman's Clothing and Poison on a River Bank--A Mystery.

Chief of Police Wilkinson was last night informed of a mysterious find along the banks of the St. Joe river, which is considered of enough importance by the officers to bear a thorough investigation. Sunday afternoon Walter Rhuland, an engraver in the employ of the Daily News, accompanied a picnic party along the banks of the St. Joe river. Upon nearing a small island which lies in the center of the stream, near Gentlivre's, Mr. Rhuland discovered a heap of wearing apparel lying on the bank and going to the spot he found the under and outer garments of a woman. The clothing bore the appearance of having been worn by a person in lowly circumstances. Lying beside the garments was a portmanteau which upon being opened disclosed an envelope bearing this inscription: "Fanny Pine, M. R. Long, Norwich, Ohio."

In the pocket of the dress was found a package containing deadly powder, enough to kill an ox, and the disturbed condition of the wrapper indicated that a portion of the contents had been used. The first conclusion of Mr. Rhuland was of course that some female, driven hither and thither by unfortunate circumstances, had resorted to a means of committing suicide by swallowing poison and throwing herself into the river. However, there is a belief that the clothing and other articles were placed there to perpetrate a hoax upon an unsuspecting, innocent public. The garments were gathered up and given in charge of a neighboring farmer. Upon the return of the picnic party to the city the matter was reported to the officers. Marshal Franke, to whom the facts as stated above were related, has failed to discover a clew that would unravel the mystery.

MILITARY GUESTS.

Col. Hastings and Adjutant Darwin to Arrive this Evening.

Colonel Hastings, colonel of the Third Indiana regiment, accompanied by Adjutant Darwin, both of Valparaiso, will arrive over the Wabash this evening from Andrews, where they held an inspection of the military company today. This evening the officers will inspect the company of Rifles at the armory. They will be entertained by the officers of the Rifles, assisted by the following officers: Lieut. Col. C. E. Graves, Majors Wilson, Silver, Tillo and Weldon; Captains Hohnhulz, Barnett, Mungen; Lieutenants Ranke, Lipes, Eckert and Doswell.

Colonel Hastings is the successor of Colonel McBride, the well known judge, and is detailed by the adjutant general to conduct preliminary inspection of the companies previous to a general inspection to be held soon. The Zollinger battery will probably be inspected next.

A banquet to the officers will be served at the Randall after the military ceremonies this evening. Col. John W. Newton, of the Indiana division, Sons of Veterans, will be in the city next Tuesday evening, May 12, and inspect the E. S. Walker camp. Rev. John M. Driver will be the orator of the occasion. It is hoped that the G. A. R. will give Colonel Newton a good audience.

RAILROAD OFFICERS!

Thomas Jackson Will Entertain a Party of Officials.

Thomas Jackson, of this city, the engineer of maintenance of way for the Pennsylvania company, will to-morrow have for his guests the following officers: E. T. Hatch, engineer of maintenance of way of the Pittsburg division; Mr. H. W. Byers, engineer of maintenance of way of the Erie and Allegheny division; Mr. W. C. Cushing, engineer of maintenance of way of the Indianapolis division, Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg, and Mr. G. Ericson, engineer of maintenance of way of the C. and M. V. railroad.

Mr. Jackson will soon leave for Alaska and this will probably be his last opportunity to meet these gentlemen before his return.

COLLAR BONE FRACTURED.

Alexander Hugenard Badly Injured While Playing Ball.

Yesterday, Alexander, the son of August F. Hugenard, of Wallen, this county, while playing ball, met with a serious accident. He was fielding the ball, when in an attempt to jump over a high fence he fell headforemost, fracturing his collar bone and injuring his side. The injury will hardly prove dangerous. Dr. DeCullough, of this city, attended.

MAKE the gamblers and toughs go. We don't want them as citizens.

FORT WAYNE does not want any more sporting events like the one of Saturday night.

THE democrats of Ohio will renominate Campbell as their candidate for governor.

THE next international convention of the Y. M. C. A. will be held in Indianapolis in 1893.

SECRETARY Blaine has better chances than Harrison for being the next republican candidate for president.

THE rain of last night and to-day was a God-send to the farmers of this county, who are greatly cheered at the blessings which it brought. They report that we will have one of the largest grain crops in this vicinity this year that we have had for a long time.

AT Saturday's session of the international convention of the Young Men's Christian association, held at Kansas City, the committee on resolutions reported a resolution, which was unanimously adopted, that it was the sense of the association that the World's Fair of 1893 be closed on Sundays, and each state secretary was instructed to make a personal request of the manager of the fair to that effect.

LET'S CALL A HALT.

The disgraceful affair which took place at the Princess rink in this city last Saturday night is one that calls for the severest condemnation of every fair-minded citizen. Under the guise of a glove contest, a brutal and bloody prize fight took place, as will be seen by the reading of the particulars of the affair which we gave in our local columns to day.

Such a brutal exhibition should surely come under the head of criminal offenses, and if it does not, as some of the sporting fraternity claim, it is high time that the laws of Indiana should be amended in this respect. There ought to be a law that would reach this class of criminal offences and if there is not, woe be unto public morals, law and order, and everything that is good and noble in this city, for these events can then be repeated with impunity over the protests of the great mass of citizens.

It was stated just before the fight took place last Saturday at the Princess rink by a Chicago newspaper man that if this contest passed off successfully other mills would be arranged and the contestants brought to this city to fight them. Does Fort Wayne want them? Emphatically, No. They will not be allowed in Chicago, and these law breakers, for that reason, seek to have them take place in this city. They should be given notice, once for all, that the disgraceful affair of Saturday night cannot be repeated. If these Chicago "gentlemen" want to have a prize fight on Hoosier soil, let them seek some other city than Fort Wayne, for we have had enough of it.

"A contest for scientific points" was the manner in which they cunningly advertised it, and those who attended witnessed a contest that was intended to be a fight to a finish—a fight which was brutal and barbarous in the extreme.

If the authorities do not set their foot down decisively against this class of exhibitions, Fort Wayne will soon be filled with toughs, bums, gamblers, blacklegs and desperadoes of the worst character, for it is just that kind of loose government that they seek.

Let the "glove contest" of last Saturday night be the last of this kind of sporting events in Fort Wayne. Let Mayor Zollinger serve notice on these Chicago "board of trade gentlemen," and sports everywhere else, that arrests will follow any future attempts in this direction, and that, too, as soon as they set foot on our city's soil with the intention of conducting any such brutal exhibition. This is what should be done, if we do not want to inaugurate a reign of immorality that will make the name of our city the by-word of the nation.

BRUTAL AND BLOODY!

Was the Fight Between White and Siddons at the Princess Rink— A Disgraceful Affair.

The long advertised and much-talked-of White-Siddons glove contest took place at the Princess rink in this city last Saturday night, and, after forty-nine brutal and bloody rounds, ended by the referee declaring it a draw.

The event attracted to the city a large number of sports from Chicago and elsewhere, many of whom had backed up their convictions of the relative merits of the fighting abilities of the two men who took a part in the contest with large wagers of money.

These strangers in the city came to witness the pugilistic event, expecting it to be a fight to a finish, and this it would have been had not the stubbornly-fought contest run it into the early Sunday morning hours. This undecisive termination was their only disappointment connected with the fistic encounter of last Saturday night, for, in other respects, in the opinion of the sporting fraternity, it was a great success.

The afternoon and late evening trains brought between two and three hundred strangers to witness the fight, most of whom were from Chicago, where the two pugilists, White and Siddons, were well known, and where the greatest interest in the result of the fight centered. To these were added sports of other places and in this city, so that when the fight commenced there were 500 persons present, most of whom had paid from $3 to $5 for a seat.

The newspaper fraternity were of course present. It was in the line of their duty, and they occupied special seats and were given special conveniences by the courteous managers of the affair. The newspaper men didn't go because they wanted to witness the brutal exhibition, but rather because they owed it to the public, as faithful chroniclers of the news of the day, to give a correct account of the fight. For this reason the SENTINEL representative was there, and he had for company representatives from nearly all the other newspapers of the city. The metropolitan press was represented as follows: Hugh E. Keough, sporting editor of the Chicago Times; Frank Brunell, turf editor Chicago Tribune; Louis M. Houseman, sporting writer Chicago Inter-Ocean; Martin Nathanson, sporting editor, and Wm. Cornell, Chicago Herald; the United Press, Con Sullivan, Chicago.

The Princess rink, with its large seating capacity and good ventilation was admirably adapted for the affair. In the center of the hall, some twenty feet from the press stand, an elevated platform, three feet above the floor, had been erected. This was thirty feet square and on it was pitched the pugilistic arena so that the audience in every part of the hall had excellent facilities for witnessing the fight.

The affair, it had been announced by those who had it in charge, "was not to be a regular prize fight, a slugging match or anything that was bad, but a sparring contest for scientific points only." This was done to keep the moral element of the community from rising up in arms against allowing it to take place, and the ruse worked, for there was not the slightest interference of the authorities with it until it had lasted for nearly four hours and was going far into Sunday morning.

It was nearly 10 o'clock, when Louis Houseman, the sporting editor of the Chicago Inter-Ocean, mounted the pugilists' platform and announced the attendants at the ring side. White was seconded by Harry Gilmore, while Tommy Ryan, who recently defeated Danny Needham at Minneapolis, looked after the interests of Siddons in the same capacity. Jimmy Murphy, of Grand Rapids, was White's bottle holder, and Bill Brandburn, of Chicago, held the bottle for Siddons. Jerry Daily, of Chicago, was agreed upon as referee, while J. B. McCabe held the watch as official time keeper.

Shortly after these arrangements had been announced Siddons made his appearance on the arena and he was followed soon afterwards by White. Both men were bare bodied to the waist, wore tight-fitting cotton pants, held up by a belt at the waist, and light shoes. They were fine looking men physically. Both were prize fighters of experience and they had many times before faced foemen in the pugilistic ring. After shaking hands, they took seats in chairs at opposite corners of the arena while the seconds adjusted their tightly fitting two ounce gloves.

At 10 o'clock "time" was called and the two men advanced to the centre of the ring to commence their "contest for scientific points only." The "scientific points" consisted in each "getting in" as many "sock-doliger," sledge hammer blows upon the face of the other as possible, and they weren't "love taps" either. They were dealt with the purpose in view of doing just as much injury to the phisiognomy of the contestants as they could possibly do. Two ounce gloves are pretty nearly as bad as bare fists, and in the contest Saturday night blood flowed freely and bunged up eyes, cut lips and disjointed noses figured prominently. The object of each was to knock the other out of time, send him to the floor senseless, and it was only because the fight was stopped by the police captain's orders at the end of the forty-ninth round that this wasn't done. "A boxing match for scientific points!" Nonsense! It was but a little more humane than a Sullivan-Kilrain prizefight. At two different times Siddons was knocked down by a blow from White, and one of his eyes was almost swollen shut through the same human instrumentality. In spite of this punishment the Grand Rapids boy succeeded in raining a number of telling blows in on the face of White, and the latter's body was all covered over with the blood which flowed from his banged up face. The punishment received by the two men was terrible, but it was "a contest for scientific points only," and so the fight was allowed to go on by the half dozen policemen who were in the hall to see that the laws of the state were not violated.

To describe the fight from beginning to end in a professional way would be as completely out of the power of the writer of this article as it would be for him to climb to the moon, and he will consequently give a description of some of the most interesting rounds of the fight as furnished by Martin Nathanson, the sporting editor of the Chicago Herald, who was the guest of Louis Heilbronner while in the city.

At precisely 10 o'clock time was called and both men advanced cautiously. Siddons led, and, falling short, both men clinched. An interchange of light blows followed and time was called.

Round 2—Siddons led with the left, catching White on the jaw without return. White, however, watched his chances and repaid Siddons with a blow under the right eye, raising a slight swelling. This angered Siddons, who became careless and left another opening which White took advantage of getting in a blow on the jaw which nearly lifted him off his feet.

Round 3—Siddons forced the fighting, but did little execution, as White was as active as a cat and managed to avoid some terrific hitting. Just before the round closed Siddons got in a terrible left hand smash on White's jaw, which staggered him for a moment, but both men were forced in their corners without further punishment.

Round 4—White was doing the most effective work and seemed to land on Siddons and where he pleased, but his blows lacked steam and did but little damage. Four times he landed on Siddon's eye without return.

Round 6—White landed again with his left twice in succession before he received a blow on the mouth. Three times again he landed but the punishment was light and Siddons only laughed. Another punch on the ear brought the first blood which was claimed by White and allowed.

Round 6—Siddons jumped to the center of the ring covered with blood, but both men clinched. At the break-away White got a terrible right-hander on the mouth which started the blood flowing, but he managed to return two left landers.

In the ninth round White again got in two blows on Siddons' left eye, his object being apparently to close that member. In the thirteenth round White attempted to land twice, but failed, and received another smash in the mouth, which caused the blood to flow afresh.

Round 16—White landed two effective blows, but received a punch in the mouth which made him ugly, and as he rushed at Siddons he gave him a hard blow on the left eye, which by this time was beginning to show the effect of the pounding, and the round closed in favor of White.

The twenty-seventh round was the hardest fought thus far, White getting in a blow on Siddons' jugular which lifted him off his feet, and had he followed up his advantage, could have scored the first knock-down. White got in two vicious blows in the following round.

In the thirty-first round Siddons, in avoiding a rush, slipped and before he could recover, received a wicked blow on the left side of the neck which drove him against the ropes. White still continued to land at will, but more steam was needed to make his blows effective.

For several rounds the fight was tame, but in the forty-sixth round some severe fighting occurred in which White knocked Siddons to the floor with a swinging right-hander on the jaw of the Grand Rapids boy. The next two rounds were fought without either man gaining much advantage over the other.

At the end of the forty-ninth round the fight was declared a draw. Owing to the boisterousness of a fellow named Calhoun, Chief of Police Wilkinson insisted that the battle be drawn.

Immediately after the termination of the fight, the principals, with their seconds, attendants, and the Chicago crowd, left and went to the Nickel Plate depot, where they boarded the special train in waiting for them, and left for Chicago.

Thus ended one of the most brutal and bloody exhibitions of the kind that ever took place in Fort Wayne.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is on the flood tide of popularity, which position it has reached by its own intrinsic, undoubted merit.

FASHION NOTES.

Written by the Society Editress of the Sentinel.

Big cushions, little cushions, cushions of all sorts and kinds, are the rage and ruling passion at present. At a recent 5 o'clock tea, a society lady was heard to boast that she had fifty, and was still adding to the collection.

The new veils not only show stars and crescents upon them, but spiders and flies. The most curious is a veritable spider's web net with one large and three small spiders meandering over it. The effect is more unique than beautiful. The jet snake coiled around, with his head in front, is conspicuous among bonnets, but like the spider, he is a little too creepy, and don't seem quite the thing for a woman to wear on her bonnet.

The Fort Wayne people who intend to spend the heated term at home, will be glad to learn that a boating company has been organized to run pleasure boats on the St. Joe river during the season.

Some one avers that the reign of bric-a-brac is over and the rooms of the rich and great collectors are being cleared of their costly trash. But in abandoning bric-a-brac for house ornaments another direction is given to its display and this is the dinner table. In Paris the fashion in table decoration has reached a point that places it among the fine arts. Dishes of the rarest workmanship, the antiques which formerly reposed in a special cabinet under glass, are now brought forth and used on the table. Flowers are scattered all over the table cloth and among them are placed precious porcelains, priceless old Saxony ware, so that the table presents a poetic confusion of flowers and bric-a-brac. Such, then, is one phase of this new mode of decoration in establishments were taste and money has been expended for extensive collections.

Bowls for the June roses are in opaque, white, yellow and pink softly shaded. The bon-bons most used for dessert are cream walnuts, crystalized appricots, pears, apples and cherries, put up in fluted paper cuts, to match table decorations. Among the most costly of these delicacies are gold and silver sweets, which are served on trays of Royal Worcester china.

The latest fad in china decoration is the photo-autograph plate. This is a handsomely ornamented plate, rich in gold, with the owner's photograph in the center of a circle in which are spaces for the autographs of fifty people. Any one who is fortunate enough to have fifty friends, invites them to write their names and charges them ten cents for the privilege. The cost of the plate is five dollars, each friend therefore assists one to become its envied possessor. To this is added the inscription, "My friends for the year 1891.

Baby is sick.—The woeful expression of a Des Moines teamster's countenance showed his deep anxiety was not entirely without cause, when he inquired of a druggist of the same city what was best to give a baby for a cold? It was not necessary for him to say more, his countenance showed that the pet of the family, if not the idol of his life was in distress. "We give our baby Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," was the druggist's answer. "I don't like to give the baby such strong medicine," said the teamster. "You know John Olson, of the Watters Talbot Printing Co., don't you?" inquired the druggist. "His baby, when eighteen months old, got hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and drank the whole of it. Of course it made the baby vomit very freely but did not injure it in the least, and what is more, it cured the baby's cold. The teamster already knew the value of the remedy, having used it himself, and was now satisfied that there was no danger in giving it even to a baby. For sale by druggists.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Is Peculiar To Itself In Strength, Economy, And Curative Power 100 Doses One Dollar Be Sure To Get Hood's

No other medicine ever placed before the public has won the people's confidence so thoroughly as Hood's Sarsaparilla. From a small beginning this medicine has steadily and rapidly increased in popularity until now it has the largest sale of any preparation of its kind. Its success it has won simply because it is constantly proving that it possesses positive merit, and does accomplish what is claimed for it. This merit is given Hood's Sarsaparilla by the fact that it is prepared by a Peculiar Combination, Proportion and Process known only to Hood's Sarsaparilla, and by which the full medicinal power of all the ingredients used is retained. Thousands of voluntary witnesses all over the country testify to its wonderful benefit. [illegible]

NEAT CABINS.

How Some of the Cabooses on Western Railroads Are Arranged—Personal and Industrial.

Considerable rivalry exists between the freight crews on some of our great through lines as to which shall have the most convenient and neatest cabooses, which are the crews' homes for eighteen out the twenty four hours of the day. A gentleman who was in one of these traveling palaces last week, thus describes it in a letter to the Indianapolis Journal: "As you enter from either door lambrequins hanging from the skylights are observed. Even alone they would give it a home like appearance. The floor is covered with nice oil cloth, while a strip of Brussels carpet runs the entire length of the cabin. Under the skylight is a large eight-pointed star, containing 1,041 brass-headed tacks. A large brake-wheel on the cupboard door contains 656 brass-headed tacks, with a large brass acorn in the center, representing a brake-shaft. Within the wheel are the emblems of their railroad organization, 'B. of P. R. T.' Mirrors large and small are placed in different parts, while beautifully decorated fans add largely to the adornments. The eight small windows are covered with chintz curtains. Two large wooden water buckets could be no cleaner, while the tinware shines like 'dad's dinner pail.' A brass-mounted comb-case, with comb hanging by a brass chain, is conveniently placed. Emory paper is neatly tacked in an accessible spot to strike matches. Tasteful pictures add to the cheerfulness of the interior. The place where a person would likely look and find dirt is the stove, upon which the crew do their cooking. Surprising as it may seem, that article, with its surroundings, is one of the cleanest parts of the cabin."

The Pennsylvania company pays its Indiana attorney $5,000 a year.

Louis Witte, the moulder, who had the misfortune to lose his wife recently, resumed his occupation in the Bass shops this morning.

William Hochstetter, of the Pittsburg paint shops, reported for duty this morning, having been absent a month on account of sickness.

The new schedule which went into effect on the Wabash yesterday only effects the time of train No. 44, which will be twelve minutes later.

C. Sweeney is at the throttle of a Pittsburg switch engine during the absence of the regular engineer, C. Buoker, who is taking a vacation.

William Korte reported for duty at the Bass shops this morning, having returned from a short wedding tour. Mr. Korte was married last Thursday.

James Hanley, of the Pittsburg store room, had his desk decorated with handsome flowers this morning, the present of one of his numerous lady friends.

John Jackson, baggage master at the Lake Shore depot, spent Sunday at Churubusco, where his wife has been spending the past two weeks with her parents.

Engine No. 32 has just been turned out of the Grand Rapids shops and will haul a passenger train from Fort Wayne to Grand Rapids. This is one of the best locomotives on the line, is now throughout and presents a handsome appearance as she glides gracefully along the track.

Calvin Baker, of the Electric works, spent Sunday in Kendallville, making the trip to and from that town on his bicycle.

Work was delayed for a short time in a portion of the Electric works Saturday by the overhead track giving way. No one was injured.

Engineer J. A. Lindsay is the proud papa of a fine girl baby, who made her appearance Saturday. Mr. Lindsay's run is on the Nickel Plate.

C. C. Ward, passenger fireman on the Pittsburg, has reported for duty. L. Gribbin, a Grand Rapids fireman, has also reported after a week's vacation.

H. Lohmeyer and his string band were out serenading last evening. The music was excellent and highly appreciated by those favored with a serenade.

Saturday afternoon Joseph Dickels, an employe at the Berghoff brewery, had the thumb of his right hand caught in a corking machine and severely bruised.

Engineers J. G. Carman and B. F. Thompson, of the Pittsburg, have reported for duty. The former was sick and the latter was off on a two week's vacation.

Engineer William Doty, after an illness of four weeks, was out yesterday for the first time. He will soon be able to resume his run on the Pittsburg road, we hope.

A new foundry will soon be in operation on Oliver street. It was built for the purpose of manufacturing a patent sewer trap and is owned by Messrs. Ertle & Mennefee.

Fireman W. Largheny, of the Pittsburg, has been granted a short vacation, the greater part of which will be taken up with attentions to his best girl, who resides in Van Wert.

L. L. Close was awarded $800 damages against the Lake Erie and Muncie, Friday. He refused to pay the ten cents extra required for cash fares and was put off the train.

To-night Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smith, of the Pittsburg car shop, leave for New York, where they will sail Wednesday for Germany, the scene of their childhood days.

The Terre Haute Car works are building 500 improved stock cars for the Pennsylvania company, to be used on the southwestern branches of the roads. The cars complete cost $580 each.

A slight change has taken place in the force at the Pittsburg round house. W. G. Page has been transferred from the day to the night force and H. J. Woehnker from the night to the day force.

Clerk Ed. Challenge went to Chicago Saturday evening, returning last evening with his mother, who is in very poor health. Mrs. Challenge will reside in this city in the future, making her home with her son Ed.

Messrs. Erickson, Van Slyke and Dawson will represent the Fort Wayne branch of the Order of Railway Conductors at the convention which convenes in St. Louis to-morrow. The gentlemen left yesterday via the Wabash for that city.

For the past twenty years John Haye has had charge of the southern Kendallville section of the Grand Rapids railroad. During that time he has never lost a day and there has never been an accident on his section, a record which many should be proud of.

Philip Wagner, a brother of Mrs. Philip Gable, met with a serious accident Saturday. While cleaning a cutting a sharp nail ripped the palm of his hand open, leaving the bones bare. The wound is a very painful one and will disable Mr. Wagner several weeks. He resides with his father just out of the city limits on the Marysville road.

William Woolford, the veteran Pittsburg machinist, has been offered the position of assistant to Superintendent Charles Doebler, of the Cincinnati, Wabash and Michigan railroad. Mr. Woolford is at Wabash to-day looking over the shops. It is not known whether he will accept or decline, but as the position is a pleasant and paying one it is quite likely that he may accept it.

Engineer W. G. Lyons, of the Pittsburg, and his family met with an accident on Calhoun street yesterday, which resulted in no damage other than a bad fright. They were driving a spirited horse, which became frightened at a passing truck and sprung to one side with such force as to break the front axle of the buggy, shaking the occupants up pretty lively. No one was injured.

Master Mechanic C. H. Doebler, of the Cincinnati, Wabash and Michigan railroad spent Sunday in this city. Concerning the gentleman the Wabash Plaindealer says: "Superintendent of Motive Power Chas. H. Doebler, of the Chicago, Wabash and Michigan road, arrived from Fort Wayne on Monday to take charge of the shop. He is a very pleasant gentleman, and will doubtless prove as popular with the employes in his department as with the officials of the line."

Benjamin Gerrard, the pleasant and popular brakeman on the Pittsburg road, whose home is in this city, is one of the happiest men in town. He wears a broad smile, and his hosts of friends are puzzled when they meet him. The secret of his happiness, as THE SENTINEL reporter learned this morning, is that a handsome boy baby has put in an appearance at his home on Lillie street. Ben wears his honors gracefully and received congratulations in a matter of fact way. The prediction is made that the boy will be a railroad president before his life's career is ended.

How plain to my mind are the scenes of my childhood,
As my recollection recalls them to view;
The soap-kettle hung on the poles of green basswood;
The Smoke and the Smell that my infancy knew!
But those days of SOFT SOAP and consequent anguish,
Have long since departed, we pray and we hope;
The use of the stuff 'gan to wane and to languish
As soon as they offered us

The Spring Medicine.

The popularity which Hood's Sarsaparilla has gained as a spring medicine is wonderful. It possesses just those elements of health giving, blood purifying and appetite-restoring which everybody seems to need at this season. Do not continue in a dull, tired, unsatisfactory condition when you may be so much benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood and makes the weak strong.

Badly Involved.

PHILADELPHIA, May 9.—John I. McDuffe, an extensive brickmaker and builder, has had judgement entered against him, yesterday, aggregating $82,130. His affairs are badly involved.

TAKE S.S.S. IN THE SPRING.

Nature should be assisted in the spring to throw off the heaviness of the sluggish winter circulation of the blood. Nothing does it so well, so prompt or so safely as Swift's Specific.

I have used S. S. S. for a number of years, and consider it the best tonic and blood remedy that I ever used. In fact I would not attempt to enter upon a spring or summer in this climate without it.

Yesterday Justice Wilkinson was called to his office on Main street to perform a ceremony which united in marriage Isaac Gillium and Miss Deborah Gerber. The parties live at Vera Cruz and left this morning for that place. The peculiar feature about the marriage, says Justice Wilkinson, is that the parties live in Wells county. The marriage license was taken out in Adams county and the marriage ceremony was performed in Allen county.

Saturday afternoon representatives of the Ohio temple, Patriarchal Circle, from Defiance, Ohio, and points in Indiana, met representatives of the circle of this city, and at the Wayne hotel parlors was organized the First regiment of Indiana Patriarchal circle. This is a military association similar to others connected with civic societies, and the following persons were chosen officers: Colonel, George S. Edmonston, of Defiance, Ohio; lieutenant-colonel, A. K. Dietz, of Richmond, Ind.; major, — Sliieger, of Elkhart.

About ten years ago a well-known practicing physician, of this city, Dr. S. P. Stevens, went to Monroeville and under the license of a local preacher expounded religion to the residents of that place for several consecutive months. He returned to Fort Wayne and went west, leaving his wife at Monroeville. Recently Mrs. Stevens procured a divorce in the Allen county court on the grounds of desertion and failure to provide. It transpires that the amorous doctor has wife number two living in the west and further investigation reveals circumstances which go to show that Dr. Stevens, on account of his peculiar methods, has sought seclusion in Canada or some other distant clime.

THE COURTS.

But Little Doing, But Some of the Cases are Interesting.

Mayor Zollinger is still out of the City. Justice Harry Faance is acting mayor, but he had nothing to do in police court this morning, as there were no arrests made by the officers yesterday.

The First National bank, of Benton, Harbor, Mich., through their attorney, W. P. Breen, sue William Byers and Bert Ort in the superior court on a note of $270.

Frank Yerkes believes in letting his wife support him, at least that is what he has been doing for some time past. She takes in washing and earns money at other kinds of honest labor and gives him free board, he being a sort of indolent fellow. Yesterday Yerkes got hold of her pocket book and helped himself to the loose change in it. Mrs. Yerkes complained about it and the husband, becoming enraged, struck his wife. The fellow was arrested and is having a hearing this afternoon before Justice Tuncey. The parties live on Hoffman street. E. V. Emerick is conducting the case for the state.

Lawrence Haiber, a butcher of Bloomingdale, was before Justice France this afternoon on a charge of assault and battery on Mrs. Alice Weaver. For about a year, Mrs. Weaver claims, Haiber has owed her a balance of twenty-five cents on a purchase of meat that she made at that time. Last Saturday she went to his shop and ordered twenty-five cents worth of meat. This was given her, and with the remark, "Now we are square," turned to go out of the shop. Haiber objected to this, and, rushing after her, as the lady says, tore the meat from her and struck her.

SUNDAY SERMONS.

The Services at Some of the City Churches Yesterday.

The services at the City department of the Young Men's Christian association yesterday afternoon were led by Dr. D. W. Moffat, who delivered an earnest, practical and interesting religious talk. His remarks were founded upon the text: "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God unto the salvation of every one that believeth." There are third rate lawyers and sixth class politicians, the doctor said, who scoff at Christianity and say it is intended only for women and children, but it is gratifying to note that many of the eminent men in the legal profession and many of the greatest statesmen of the world, among them Gladstone, of England, testify to its divinity and its worth, and believe that it is the power of God unto salvation. The religion of Christ, said the doctor, impresses one with its beauty and simplicity. It is for all, and men are made better and happier by it.

Rev. Wones, the new pastor of the Trinity Methodist church, preached a forcible and interesting sermon yesterday morning on the "Transfiguration of Christ." His sermon in the evening was a discourse on the Lord's prayer and was an able one.

Rev. Bender, of Westerville, Ohio, filled the pulpit of the First U. B. church yesterday morning at 10:30, and Rev. George Miller, presiding elder of the West DesMoines, Iowa, conference, in the evening.

The services at the railroad department of the Young Men's Christian Association yesterday afternoon were of an interesting character and largely attended.

B. J. REKERS DEAD.

The Well Known Carpenter Expires from Nervous Prostration--Deaths.

At 4 o'clock this morning occurred the death of Bernard J. Rekers, the well known carpenter residing at 121 West Washington street. His age was sixty-six years and he had resided in Fort Wayne upwards of fifty years. He was a brother of Gerhard Rekers, the grocer, and Clem Rekers. The deceased leaves a widow and three children, as follows: H. G. B. Rekers, a young man; Miss Clara Rekers, and Mrs. Mary Gebhart. The funeral will take place Thursday at 9 a. m. from the house and a little later from the St. Paul's Catholic church.

Timothy Delano, a young plumber, died Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Peter Kline, of 32 East Fifth street, of consumption. His age was twenty-five years. The deceased was born at Lafayette, Ind., and had resided in this city for some time. He was a young man of excellent character. The funeral will take place Tuesday at 9 a. m. from the house and at 9:30 from the Cathedral.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.

The Whereabouts of George L. Bean Not Known.

The mysterious disappearance of George L. Bean, of Follmer, a small town between Van Wert and Latty, Ohio, has led to inquiry in this city and vicinity, as it is believed the man was foully dealt with here. Mr. Bean left home on April 21 for this city. Since then his family has not seen or heard of him. He was a respectable man and a worthy member of the Order of Red Men. It is known that Bean had a large sum of money about his person when he left home. It is believed by some that the man is demented and is unable to account for himself.

Persecuting the Jews.

London, May 11.—Since the Greek attack on the Jewish quarters of Corfu, the Jewish residents of that town have not dared to open their shops or to let themselves be seen in the streets. They creep out of their houses at daybreak to buy victuals, for which they have to pay three times the value. All the synagogues are closed. A recent Jewish funeral required an escort of troops. In fact many of the soldiers are in sympathy with the Jews. The anti-semitic movement is increasing in danger. Almost daily attempts are made to set fire to the Jewish quarter by means of rags soaked in petroleum.

Sent to the Penitentiary.

Little Rock, Ark., May 11.—In the circuit court of Mississippi county David Ferguson, ex county clerk and a prominent citizen of Chiltenden county, was this morning convicted of forgery and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary. Ferguson issued and held warrants amounting to thousands of dollars.

The President of a Delaware savings bank refused to give a tramp 10 cents, and the tramp went about hinting that the bank was unsafe, and in twenty-four hours there was a run which took out many thousand dollars, but fortunately not enough to occasion any inconvenience to the bank.

There are twenty eight towns in Kansas, Nebraska, Idaho, Washington, and California which have lost 15 to 30 per cent of population in five years, and where business property has shrunk 50 to 60 per cent. in the same time. Land syndicates always let go when the pigeons have been plucked.

The power of endurance of the Chinese coolie is marvelous. A missionary from China tells of an instance that came under his own observation, of men voluntarily traveling forty-six miles before breakfast, bearing a heavy load most of the time. In another case he met with some men who, after having gone twenty-seven hours without food, and having carried a heavy burden in the meantime, yet had still strength enough left to carry a man fifteen miles farther.

OVER THE WIRE.

The Siddons-White Pugilistic Contest Telegraphed Broadcast.

The Western Union telegraph office was a hot-bed of business Saturday night and early Sunday morning on account of the Siddons-White prize fight. Thirteen metropolitan papers were supplied with accounts of the fight by correspondents, all of the Chicago morning dailies having wires direct into their offices. Before the thirteenth round had been fought one half of the account of the fight had been set up in the offices of the Chicago Inter-Ocean, Times, Herald and Tribune, and fifteen minutes after the fight the whole thing was in type. Nearly eleven thousand words concerning the fight were sent over the wire from this city by correspondents.

AN IMPORTANT MEETING.

The Business Men's Exchange Will Work to Get the Encampment.

An important meeting of the Business Men's exchange will be held this evening at the rooms in the Bank block and a large attendance is urged. The chances for securing to this city the next meeting of the state military encampment will be fully discussed. The effort of Indianapolis in this direction has not met with much encouragement and it is believed that without much effort Fort Wayne can have this grand military event next August. Anyhow a strong effort will be made in this direction.

Something Wonderful.

Was the size of the crowd that attended the Great Chicago Heavy Failure sale of Clothing at 28 East Main street. Happy people were constantly seen coming out of the store with radiant faces all aglow with joy to think that at last they have been able to purchase clothing so low, that care flew away like chaff before a gale. Even their competitors admit that they are selling goods so low that they are unable to compete with them. Men's all wool suits are selling at $3 74. Men's fine pants at 98c. Fine summer coats and vests at 48c each. Fine silk umbrellas at 98c, and everything else at proportionately low prices. Remember this sale lasts but a short time only. Don't miss it. Remember the location—28 East Main street.

Macbeth's "pearl top" and "pearl glass" lamp-chimneys do not break from heat, not one in a hundred; they break from accidents.

They are made of clear glass as well as tough, as clear as crystal. They fit the lamps they are made for. Shape controls the draft; they are shaped right. Draft contributes to proper combustion; that makes light; they improve the light of a lamp.

But they cost a dealer three times as much as common chimneys, and, as they do not break, he is apt to be anxious lest they stop his trade. Diminished sales and less profit are not agreeable to him.

There are two sides to the question. Have a talk with him.
